

Some Answers May Be Used More Than Once: A Carriwitchet Quiz

By Bob Lucky

1. ____ If a cricket with a bat hits the jackpot, what will a bat with a cricket hit?
 2. ____ How many smoots is it from April to the Taj Mahal?
 3. ____ If the Tex-Mex combo #3, with both flour and corn tortillas, costs more than you make in an hour, how long will it take a three-legged skink to drink a Margarita?
 4. ____ When is a clock?
 5. ____ What's the difference between a hamburger?
 6. ____ As I was padding my wallet with used cars, I came across a Barbie doll with one arm and no head. How many French fries can fit into a mobile phone?
 7. ____ If you cross walk against a red light, what happens to blue?
 8. ____ If a hungry caterpillar eats another hungry caterpillar, how many butterflies do you get?
 9. ____ What's it called when in the morning before it's morning you wake up in the dark to pee but fall back to sleep before you get up to pee?
 10. ____ One night I caught a falling star. What does an elephant allergic to peanuts do at parties?
- A. The full moon lacks hindsight.
 - B. Do I look like a proctologist?
 - C. A half bun is different, but a bun is the same.
 - D. George Daniels made a co-axial escapement.
 - E. It depends on the color of the pants you're wearing.
 - F. It depends on the number of thumbs on the Orca.
 - G. I haven't read that book.
 - H. Puts a merkin on its head as a reminder.
 - I. A square root is not a rhizome.
 - J. Queer plungers means what it used to, but no one means that anymore.
 - K. Choose this answer.

Bio for Bob Lucky

